

How to get Here

By Sea

There is a daily ferry service to and from the port of Piraeus, Athens. The ferry leaves Port of Souda (about 15 Km away) at 21:00 and from Piraeus also at 21:00 and takes eight and a half hours. See Anek Lines for bookings etc.

Please note that the companies do change the sailing times.

By Air

During the holiday season there are numerous charter flights from many UK and other European airports to Chania (airport about 25 Km from Almyrida). Your local travel agent or airport should be able to give you full details. From Athens there are connections world-wide.

Throughout the year there are generally about ten flights to and from the International airport at Athens. There are 4 flights a week to Thessaloniki and a weekly flight to Rhodes.

See Olympic Airways , Aegean Airways and TUI Airways for further details of these

